Jualan Rahmah Bergerak manfaat golongan sasar

Kuala Lumpur: Jualan Rahmah Bergerak antara inisiatif dijalankan Kementerian Perdagangan Dalam Negeri dan Kos Sara Hidup (KPDN) bagi memastikan lebih ramai golongan sasar menerima manfaat daripada program itu.

Menteri Perdagangan Dalam Negeri dan Kos Sara Hidup, Datuk Seri Salahuddin Ayub, berkata program itu mendapat sokongan penuh daripada industri dalam bentuk van, lori atau treler yang digunakan untuk menjual barangan keperluan ke lokasi penduduk.

"Menerusi Jualan Rahmah Bergerak, kementerian tidak perlu mengeluarkan sebarang bayaran untuk penggunaan lori itu termasuk perbelanjaan untuk petrol atau mengupah pemandu memandangkan inisiatif ini ialah private-driven.

"Maknanya bukan hanya pada barang tetapi pengusaha itu sendiri telah merahmahkan dirinya, jadi kita boleh bayangkan dengan harga Rahmah dan juga lori itu tak disewa, pemandu tidak digaji, itu semua membantu kepada kejayaan Jualan Rahmah Bergerak ini," katanya pada sidang media di Bangunan Parlimen, semalam.

Salahuddin berkata, kementerian akan melihat kaedah untuk meneruskan dan memperluas Jualan Rahmah Bergerak ke kawasan pedalaman pada masa akan datang.

Selain itu, beliau berkata, bermula 16 Jun lalu, Jualan Rahmah dilaksanakan di 640 Dewan Undangan Negeri (DUN) berbanding hanya di peringkat Parlimen sebelum ini bersempena sambutan Aidiladha.

"Kita telah menumpukan lagi di kawasan DUN supaya lokasi itu lebih mendasari dan menyentuh rakyat di kampung pedalaman," katanya.

Selain Jualan Rahmah Bergerak, beliau berkata, program Jualan Rahmah turut dilaksanakan menerusi dua kaedah lagi iaitu penjualan di premis yang sesuai seperti pasar raya atau pasar raya besar serta jualan di lapangan atau balai raya berhampiran kawasan terbabit.

Dalam pada itu, Salahuddin berkata, pihaknya tidak menerima sebarang aduan mengenai kekurangan bekalan barangan termasuk gula menjelang musim perayaan Aidiladha minggu ini.

"Saya akui dalam dua hingga tiga minggu lalu ada aduan tentang kekurangan gula, itu kita atasi dengan cepat. Kalau ada lokasi tertentu dilaporkan (kekurangan bekalan) kepada kita, dalam masa 24 jam kita dapat selesaikan.

"Tetapi setakat tengah hari ini (semalam) belum kedengaran lagi aduan mengenai kekurangan barangan dan tujuh hari berturut-turut tiada aduan berhubung kekurangan gula," katanya.

RM1.1mil worth of fake oil seized

Complaints made over products sold on ecommerce platforms and shops

By GERARD GIMINO
 gerard.gimino@thestar.com.my

PETALING JAYA: Fake engine oil worth RM1.1mil was seized in 33 raids from 2019 to May this year, says the Domestic Trade and Cost of Living Ministry.

"Raids were conducted based on reports that also include complaints from officials representing the engine oil companies," said the ministry's director-general (enforcement), Datuk Azman Adam.

"The complaints were for products offered for sale on both ecommerce platforms and at physical premises," he said in a statement to The Star.

He said action taken by the ministry came under the Trademarks Act 2019 where the complainants had performed their own verification before reporting fake products to the ministry.

"The 33 cases were conducted

Motorists beware: The story published on June 23 highlighting the proliferation of fake engine oils in the market and the risks of using them.

with cooperation from product trademark owners. Investigations are still ongoing for some of the cases," he added.

Azman said a majority of the complaints were from the Klang Valley.

"The location of inspections and raids is usually based on complaints, viral issues and counterfeit goods hotspots.

"We have also conducted raids on storage areas that are not located in public areas.

"The public may not be aware of this and assume that the ministry only focuses its raids and inspections on retail outlets or certain hotspots," he added.

Azman said the ministry would continue to monitor the situation and work with the engine oil companies, which have their own investigation teams keeping an eye on the market.

The Star recently highlighted that fake engine parts and motor oil were flooding the market, especially on ecommerce platforms, prompting a warning from car experts for motorists to be extra cautious.

A check on ecommerce platforms revealed that some car engine oil, supposedly from well-known brands, were offered at much lower than usual prices.

Industry players warn that using fake engine oil could result in damage to their car engines in the long run.

Azman said those found guilty of importing, selling or in possession of such fake goods can face a RM10,000 fine per item, three years' jail or both under Section 102 of the Trademarks Act 2019.

He said the penalty would increase to a fine not exceeding RM20,000 per product, a five-year jail term or both upon conviction for subsequent offences.

He also said the ministry would not hesitate to resort to sterner action against suspects by freezing their accounts under the Anti-Money Laundering, Anti-Terrorism Financing and Proceeds from Illegal Activities Act.

He advised consumers to be more cautious when purchasing engine oil and to stop supporting such fake products.
