KPDN serbu premis tipu ketulenan emas

3,545 keping logam dicop AU 999.9 disita dalam Ops Tulen

Kuala Lumpur: Taktik premis menjual emas melalui saluran media sosial dengan menipu tahap ketulenan terbongkar apabila diserbu Kementerian Perdagangan Dalam Negeri dan Kos Sara Hidup (KPDN) yang menyita 3,545 keping logam emas pelbagai bentuk bernilai RM82,725 menerusi Operasi Khas Ops Tulen di Pusat Perniagaan Kuchai Lama, di sini baru-baru ini.

KPDN dalam kenyataan semalam, memaklumkan operasi di bawah Akta Perihal Dagangan 2011 (Akta 730) itu dilaksanakan enam pegawai penguat kuasa bahagian penguat kuasa kementerian selepas premis berkenaan disyaki menjual produk emas yang tidak menepati standard ketulenan melalui saluran media sosial.

"Hasil ujian menggunakan peralatan pendarfluor sinar-X (XRF) ke atas syiling emas yang dibeli mendapati kandungan emas sebenar lebih rendah berbanding ketulenan yang dicop iaitu AU 999.9, dengan bacaan purata sekitar 77 peratus," menurut kenyataan itu.

Pembekal kepada peruncit

Pemeriksaan lanjut mendapati premis berkenaan adalah pembekal kepada peruncit yang memasarkan produk emas dalam talian, manakala produk dipamerkan di premis itu sama seperti diiklankan di media sosial.

Ujian ke atas emas yang disita pula menunjukkan kandungan emas berbeza-beza antara 80 peratus hingga 98 peratus bagi setiap kepingan seberat 0.01 gram.

Sehubungan itu, premis terbabit disyaki melakukan kesalahan di bawah Seksyen 5(1)(a) Akta Perihal Dagangan 2011 kerana membuat perihal dagangan palsu berkaitan standard ketulenan barangan logam berharga.

Selain emas, beberapa peralatan dan dokumen turut disita bagi membantu siasatan.

KPDN memaklumkan tindakan undang-undang akan diambil terhadap mana-mana pihak yang membuat perihal dagangan palsu mengenai kandungan, jenis atau nama barangan di bawah Seksyen 5(1)(c) Akta 730.

Bagi individu, kesalahan pertama boleh dikenakan denda sehingga RM250,000 atau penjara maksimum tiga tahun atau kedua-duanya, manakala bagi kesalahan kedua atau berikutnya denda sehingga RM500,000 atau penjara maksimum lima tahun atau kedua-duanya, jika sabit kesalahan.

Bagi syarikat pula, denda sehingga RM500,000 boleh dikenakan bagi kesalahan pertama dan sehingga RM1 juta bagi kesalahan kedua atau berikutnya.

KPDN menegaskan komitmen kementerian untuk terus mempergiatkan penguatkuasaan bagi membanteras amalan perniagaan yang mengelirukan dan menipu pengguna, khususnya melibatkan penjualan barangan logam berharga. BERNAMA

Taktik sebuah premis menjual produk logam berharga iaitu emas melalui saluran media sosial dengan menipu tahap ketulenan terbongkar apabila diserbu Kementerian Perdagangan Dalam Negeri dan Kos Sara Hidup (KPDN), baru-baru ini.

Dalam serbuan berkenaan, KPDN merampas 3,545 keping logam emas pelbagai bentuk yang ditandakan dengan standard ketulenan tertentu serta beberapa peralatan dan dokumen berkaitan bagi tujuan siasatan lanjut dengan anggaran nilai keseluruhan rampasan adalah sebanyak RM82,725.

KPDN berkata, serbuan dijalankan Bahagian Penguatkuasa KPDN menerusi Operasi Khas Ops Tulen di Wilayah Persekutuan Kuala Lumpur mengikut Akta Perihal Dagangan 2011 (Akta 730).

Menurutnya, operasi ini membabitkan enam pegawai penguat kuasa dan dijalankan ke atas sebuah premis perniagaan di Pusat Perniagaan Kuchai Lama.

"Pemeriksaan mendapati premis berkenaan menjual produk logam berharga iaitu emas melalui saluran media sosial.

"Hasil kajian menggunakan peralatan X-Ray Fluorescence (XRF) ke atas produk syiling emas yang dibeli pegawai KPDN mendapati bahawa kandungan emas sebenar adalah lebih rendah berbanding tahap ketulenan yang dicop pada kepingan itu iaitu AU 999.9.

"Bagaimanapun, bacaan purata kandungan emas yang diperoleh hanyalah sekitar 77 peratus yang jelas tidak selaras dengan ketulenan yang diiklankan," katanya dalam kenyataan, semalam.

Menurut KPDN, pemeriksaan lanjut mendapati premis berkenaan adalah pembekal kepada peruncit yang menjual produk emas itu di media sosial dan produk yang dipamerkan di premis ini adalah sama seperti yang diiklankan secara dalam talian.

"Hasil ujian ke atas emas yang disita daripada premis ini menunjukkan kandungan emas yang berbeza-beza iaitu antara 80 peratus hingga 98 peratus bagi setiap kepingan seberat 0.01 gram.

"Sehubungan itu, premis berkenaan disyaki melakukan kesalahan mengikut Seksyen 5(1)(a) Akta Perihal Dagangan 2011 (Akta 730) berhubung pelanggaran standard ketulenan barang yang diperbuat daripada logam berharga," katanya.

OP TULEN

RM82,000 in gold seized over false purity claims

PUTRAJAYA: The Domestic Trade and Cost of Living Ministry has seized gold pieces worth over RM82,000 in a special operation in Kuala Lumpur over alleged misrepresentation of purity standards.

Its Enforcement Division said the seizure, conducted during an operation codenamed Op Tulen under the Trade Descriptions Act 2011, took place at a business premise in Pusat Perniagaan Kuchai Lama.

"The operation involved six enforcement officers, and they found that the premises was supplying gold products to retailers and promoting the items for sale through social media platforms.

"Tests using X-ray fluorescence equipment on a gold bar purchased by ministry officers showed the actual gold content was significantly lower than the purity level stamped on the item, which indicated AU 999.9," it said in a statement yesterday.

The division added that the average gold content recorded was only about 77 per cent, which did not match the advertised standard.

"Further checks showed that gold products displayed at the premises were the same as those promoted online.

"Subsequent tests on seized items showed varying gold content ranging between 80 per cent and 98 per cent for each piece weighing 0.01g," it said, adding that the premises was being investigated under Section 5(1)(a) of the Trade Descriptions Act 2011 for alleged violations of standards of purity for goods made from precious metals.

It added that 3,545 pieces of gold in various forms worth RM82,750 were seized.

The ministry warned that any party found making false trade descriptions regarding the content, type or name of goods could be charged under Section 5(1)(c) of the same act.

Individuals convicted of a first offence can be fined up to RM250,000 or jailed for up to three years, or both.

For subsequent offences, the fine can reach RM500,000 or imprisonment of up to five years, or both.

Companies face fines of up to RM500,000 for a first offence and up to RM1 million for repeat offences.
